Visual Guidelines:

Artwork: The Target GiftCard™ image must be used exactly as provided. Please choose only one of the two options listed below (Bullseye Pieces or Puppy with Tail). It must be shown in its entirety and cannot be cropped or cut off along the sides.

Bullseye Pieces

Puppy with Tail

Treatments: The Target GiftCard image cannot be positioned at the top of your promotional material, tilted or rotated. Additionally, the Target GiftCard image cannot be turned into a sticker or made into a scratch-off. If you'd like to add a drop shadow to the Target GiftCard image, the shadow should always fall toward the bottom and off to the right. Lastly, should you incorporate a drop shadow, please use a subtle gradient. See below for examples.

Color: The Target GiftCard image must always appear in the colors provided and cannot be altered in any way. For newspaper and other black-and-white uses, the Target GiftCard image may be converted to grayscale. To separate a card from a same-color background, use a .5-point border rule on Target GiftCard images.

Visual Guidelines

Sizing: All Target GiftCard images must be less visually prominent than your company's identity.

At no time should the Target GiftCard image dominate or compete with your company's identity. For example, a postcard with the Target GiftCard image spanning the entire front side is not permitted. See below for examples.

Correct Usage

Incorrect Usage

Clear space: Clear space must always surround the Target GiftCard image. The image should be separate from other elements such as headlines, body text and imagery, as well as the outside edge of printed and electronic materials.

Correct Usage

Incorrect Usage

Target GiftCards Logo:

The updated logo lockup should include the new tagline “Celebrate. Motivate. Reward.” (space permitting), and the word “GiftCards” should be one word with the “G” and “C” capped.

Target Signature:

The Target Signature consists of the Target Bullseye Design and the Target Logotype. The Target Logotype is rarely used alone. The relative position and placement of these two elements should always remain consistent and never be altered, re-created or rearranged in any way. Use provided electronic artwork to ensure consistency.

The Target Signature cannot be used as a word within a sentence. It must stand alone.

Correct Usage

Incorrect Usage

Placement: It is preferred that the Target Signature be used only in promotional materials in which several redemption options are featured, and all the participating retailer logos are displayed together for selection purposes. Whenever possible, Target should have prominent placement. In all other cases, the Target GiftCard image should be used instead of the Target Logotype. Reach out to the Target GiftCard team regarding logo usage questions.

Example: In a hotel loyalty program, guests earn points that can be redeemed for a variety of items, including a Target GiftCard. In this case, the Target Signature may be used in the catalog of redemption options or on the redemption website.

Correct Usage

Color: The Target Signature must always appear in either Target Red (Pantone 186), black or white. When it appears in a dark field, the entire signature must be reversed to white.

Trademark: No “®” is on the logo so “Target and the Bullseye Design are registered trademark of Target Brands, Inc.” must be called out somewhere on the page.

Vendor Announcement Guidelines

External Agency and Vendor Communications Policy:

Target asks its agencies and vendors to adhere to a strict communications policy to ensure Target leads all communication about its business, products, services, partnerships and marketing efforts. Target's Public Relations team manages the company's media relations efforts, understands the company's broad communication priorities, and will determine how, when and in what channels Target news will be shared. External agencies and vendor partners should not release any news or publically disclose information related to their partnership with Target without prior consent from Target Corporation.

Additional details follow. Under no circumstances should Target's agencies and vendor partners break Target news or seek singular credit for work done on behalf of Target.

Agencies and vendor partners are allowed to do the following with prior consent and approval from Partner Management Group:

- Post past work (including images or Target logo) on company's blog, website, newsletters or vehicles used to communicate publicly following the completion of a campaign or project
 - Credit Target, campaign name and date
 - No additional information should be included
 - Agency must follow talent usage rights for assets and remove from site when terms of agreement have expired
 - If posting broadcast, must use Target YouTube embeddable link
- Retweet @Target, @TargetStyle, @TargetNews when appropriate
- Tweet new content that highlights work that has already been made public and clearly communicates that the work is a result of the agency/vendor's partnership with Target
 - Prior to event/campaign, agency and/or vendor partner and Target must agree upon approved timing of social media activity
 - When posting social media content ask, "is it clear that we are working on behalf of Target?"
- Mention Target as a client in a meeting (i.e. conferences, new business pitches, etc.)
 - Any presentations including case studies must be approved 2 weeks prior to presentation and cannot include specific results or budgets
 - All potential presentations must be approved by Target's Partner Management Group

Agencies and vendor partners are not approved to:

- Distribute any media materials that identify or discuss Target, or projects conducted on behalf of Target
- Engage or participate in proactive or reactive press opportunities including pitches, media interviews (live or email), or spokesperson quotes/statements regarding Target partnership or campaign
 - This includes media meet-and-greet-activities with agency's PR team and media
- Tweet or post new content including images or video on any agency/vendor social platforms (campaign, behind-the-scenes on set, event space). Please see above for pre-approved potential social media opportunities.

All exception requests should be submitted through the external partner's Target contact.

Promotion Tips:

To avoid confusion, keep your promotion clearly focused by making sure your products, trademarks and logos are prominent on all materials. Use of the Target name and the Target GiftCard image should be secondary. Also, your messaging, layout and design must not imply Target sponsorship or endorsement of your products, services or website. Remember, it's your promotion, not ours.

- Offer is stated in the incorrect order (p. 7)
- Avoid using phrases with Target-related words (p. 7)
- Target standard disclaimer is missing (p. 8)
- Company creating the promotion is subordinate to Target branding

Delivery Tips:

When presenting Target GiftCards to recipients, keep the look and feel of your delivery mechanism (Target GiftCard carrier) consistent with your company's brand standards. The carrier should be letter-sized and bifolded for easy delivery (see Figure 1). The Target GiftCard should be positioned on the bottom right side of your letter. This will help to avoid brand confusion, ensuring that your brand is prominently displayed. Always be mindful of your own brand standards.

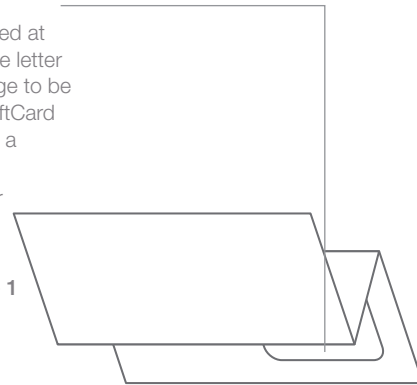

Sample Promotion: Correct Usage

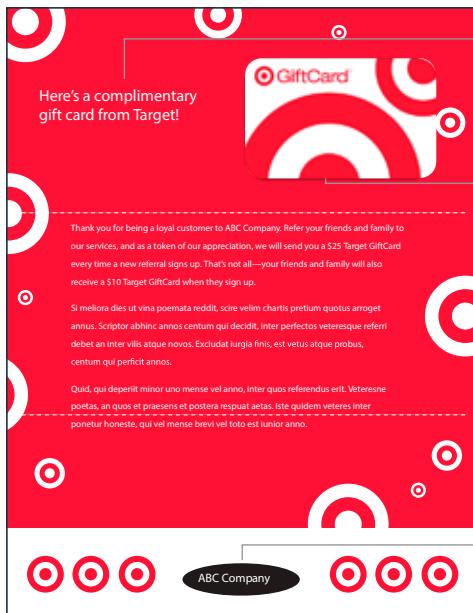

Correct

- Company creating the promotion is prominently identified
- Target name and Target GiftCard image are secondary
- Design does not imply Target sponsorship
- Target GiftCard is spelled correctly and appears with trademark symbol (p. 7)
